HTC GL Superprep Series

For floor preparation & coatings removal

An aggressive tool at an aggressive price!

The new HTC GL Superprep tools are aggressive in many ways. With developed matrix technology HTC has managed to create extremely aggressive tools at an even more aggressive price.

The HTC GL Superprep series contain a mix of crushed PCD and diamonds to give a high cut rate. This series is perfect for applications such as floor preparation, the removal of coatings, glue, or any other floor topping.

The biggest surprise might be the price, $42 per tool, list price. Contact your HTC sales representative today to order!
